PRESIDENT: Sir. Senator Duis. Did you wish to be heard here on the issue?

SENATOR DUIS: Mr. Speaker, I just had a.....rather Mr. President, and Mr. Speaker also. I just had a suggestion that might help in this situation and that is if you made this list and put it as an agenda for that next day and not vary from the agenda as say so many of these bills. Then and absolutely take up no other controversial bills except those that you put on the agenda, then each person would be aware of the bill that was coming up. If he had any interest in it at all, he would then be there.

PRESIDENT: Speaker Proud.

SENATOR PROUD: Well, that might be a good suggestion but I suggest that we just let the motion rest as it is and vote on it because as I see it, looking at a cold sheet of titles of bills is fine. But, once one little amendment is put on, it can change the whole purpose of the bill and I question the validity of a non-controversial list because I doubt if there really is such a thing.

PRESIDENT: Senator Duis.

SENATOR DUIS: Senator Proud, the remainder of my suggestion if you might hear me. Senator Proud, the remainder of my suggestion was any amendment to any of these bills on the agenda be printed in the Journal and not taken up for a period of two days. I'm a strict believer in agenda and I'm also a strict believer that no amendment to a bill should be acted on the same day that it is heard. I believe that for a long, long time, regardless of whose amendment it is. I don't think it should be adopted the same day that it is given. I think that every amendment should be laid over for a period of two days and I think if we'd start it on this, just have an absolute agenda of those bills that would be heard that day and any amendment to those bills and that bill would be held and the amendment printed in the Journal and not acted on for a period of two days, then it's put back on the agenda. That way no amendment could be adopted without a person not knowing that.

SENATOR PROUD: I think you have a point, Senator, but I think I also have a point and we just ought to plow through these bills as they come up.

PRESIDENT: Senator Dickinson. The motion before the house is just that we commence all day sessions on Wednesday for or against it.

SENATOR DICKINSON: I would like to have some time, Mr. Speaker. I'll wait until you vote on this and ask for a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: All right. Now, any further discussion of this motion? Senator Syas.
